98 YHS Graduates

Near-Record Crowd Sees Commencement

School days ended officially Friday night for 98 Yoe High School seniors who received diplomas before one of the largest Commencement audiences in Cameron history.

About 1,500 parents and friends crowded the south-side bleachers at Yoe Field to see YHS's class of 1958 receive their diplomas, presented by School Board President H. B. Pressley.

Valedictorian Ruth Matyastik and Salutatorian Marie Mueck led the six top honor students in giving commencement addresses. Miss Matyastik spoke on "Education and Free Enterprise" while Miss Mueck gave "A Salute to Our School.'

Other talks were given by Kay Camp, Gailya Griswold, Make McDermott, Jr., and Marjorie Marie Wilkinson. Janice Marie Bridges gave the invocation.

Supt. Wiley Loughmiller presented the class for graduation following announcement of scholarship awards to Miss Matyastik, Miss Mueck and McDermott by Principal J R. Young.

The Yoe High School band played processional and recessional music for the line of graduates as they filed on and off the field.

School was closed for the summer Friday after report cards were handed out at the Cameron schools. Schools around the county also closed last week.

School will reopen September 2, officials said this week.

Readers come and readers go, but this one went far, far away .....to Teheran, Iran.

His name is Simjian and he wants not one but three subscriptions to The Herald. The letterhead on the subscription request said Simjian and Company, but was signed only, "Simjian."

My guess is that it's a Middle East Oil company wondering what Milam County is doing to the world oil market. What's yours?

DISTANT DATA — A native Milam Countian, now a member of the military, was looking very homesick as his ship sailed into New York harbor past the Statue of Liberty.

A friend asked: "Isn't that the most wonderful sight you've ever seen?"

Said the Milam man: "Gosh, no, man. The only statue I'm interested in seeing wave at me is 'I' Ben Milam."

99 — 99 — 99

The incident mentioned above is reputed to have happened. So says our informant. The statue referred to is the courthouse square statue of Ben Milam, early Texas patriot whose name this county bears.

Publication of the joke leaves us without the "anecdoteless" claim of last week and with the feeling that the Ninty-niner will soon have some tall yarns to pass on to you.

Still you don't have to go very far to find the kind of stuff that brings a chuckle to weary salesmen who hope to fill a big order.

A sign reads thusly in one local concern:

"When in this office speak with soft, soothing voice and do not disagree with me in any manner whatsoever."

99 — 99 — 99

Signs continue to fascinate us. We have one at The Herald which blandly explains:

SOMEBODY GOOFED!

And we all have seen the notice posted above desks, doorways and work areas in various businesses which some well-meaning fellow drew up.

It goes:

PLAN AHEAD

Enough foolishness 'til next week.

Drilling Starts On Deep Wildcat In SW Milam Area

Milam County s latest deep wildcat by a major company was reported getting underway early this week when rig was moved in by General Crude for a 12,000 foot test in the southwest part of the county near the Burleson County line.

Location for the deep try is on a tract of land owned by J. W. Garner, Preston Perry and the Kidd estate. It is part of a 10,000 acre lease block which General Crude put together in that area.

The wildcat is located in the D. H. Van Vieghton Survey and about 12 miles south of Rockdale.

First rumored as a 14,000 foot try, the test, at 12,000 feet, will be one of the deepest drilled in Milam County. A few years ago the Texas Gulf Sulphur Company of Houston drilled a 12,700 foot deep wildcat on their acreage three miles northwest of Milano.

The new wildcat is expected to test several deep formations, including the Pettit, the Glen Rose and possibly the Cotton Valley.

City Jaycees Hear Talk By Officials

The Cameron Jaycees Monday night heard Texas Jaycee President Dr. Douglas Guthrie and Regional Vice-President Joe Sawyer, both of Waco, discuss the organization's activities in an orientation program at Kathy's Cafe.

Guthrie, a special visitor Monday night, told Jaycees and visitors that Jaycees are young men in action working for the good of their community. He pointed out that Jaycees throughout the nation have developed projects that bettered the communities in which they were sponsored.

Sawyer, state vice-president of the Cen-Tex region, noted that Jaycees can boost their communities with activities like the local Santa Pals Christmas gift project, the Jaycee Road-e-o and special trains to athletic events.

He went on to explain the history of the national Junior Chamber founded in St. Louis in 1915. It has grown to 200,000 members in the United States with headquarters in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Richard Williams, state Jaycee treasurer from Cameron, showed a movie, "The Jaycee Story" and discussed recent activities of the local club. He said that Curtis Ray Fuchs, local winner of the Jaycee Road-e-o here, won second place in the regional contest and will go on to the state contest in June.

Other discussions of local Jaycee activities were presented by Don Humble and President Bill Crockett.

U. S. Officials Confirm Reports Of New Building

Three telegrams from Texas' U. S. Senators and U. S. Rep. W. R. (Bob) Poage this week confirmed an earlier report that appropriations are now available for Cameron's National Guard armory.

Poage's wire said that Gen. Edgar C. Erickson, chief of the National Guard Bureau announced approval of the construction.

Telegrams from Senators Ralph Yarborough and Lyndon Johnson confirmed that $87,750 in federal funds was available for the Cameron structure.

Federal approval was the go ahead sign for letting of bids June 5, date reported to The Herald last week by informed sources in Austin.

To Build This Summer

It will mean that Cameron probably will see construction begin on the armory this summer. Bids were called for last August but never let when federal funds were unavailable, officials said.

Bids were advertised May 13 by the Texas Adjutant General's office.

The new armory will be 108 feet wide and 116 feet long and will house Milam County's Battery C, 649th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion, commanded by Capt. James T. Terry.

The armory will be located on the 20-acre tract of land owned by the National Guard in west Cameron. Present facilities which will adjoin the new structure will be used as a vehicle storage building.

One Unit Armory

Authorities termed the structure a one-unit armory. It will have a drill hall measuring about 93 by 59 feet, according to plans Capt. Terry had last summer.

Plans include storage, supply, locker rooms, classrooms, a kitchen and offices for use of the Guardsmen.

The 20-acre site was purchased and donated to the Guard several years ago following a drive by Chamber of Commerce and civic leaders to provide land for the unit.

The $87,750 was released for expenditure during 1958 for the armory.

Texas Champions of Freedom

COMMODORE EDWIN W. MOORE

Stormy Petrel of Texas Independence

Edwin W. Moore was the only Commandant the Texas Navy ever had, history's lonely man with one ideal . . to champion freedom. The Commodore was never noted for his deference to the opinions of others or the orders of his civilian superiors, but during the war for Texas independence Mexico's ships and shores had ample cause to respect his daring and naval genius. With a fleet of four small ships he disrupted Mexico's commerce, harassed and captured several of her coastal towns, and kept the ports of Texas open to supplies and shipping. A former officer in the United States Navy, Commodore Moore chose to fight for liberty and Texas . . as so many other brave and bold adventurers did. They were the men who left us a heritage of courage and determination to bow to no man's dictation.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland . . "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

Summer Rec Program Booms . . .

The Cameron Summer Recreation program began rolling again this week at Yoe Field and at athletic facilities around the city.

Officials noted that more interest than ever has developed in Little League and Babe Ruth baseball. Each league added a team this year to bring the total to eight.

And there are dozens of other boys and girls who will be participating in the summer program—in golf, tennis, volleyball, softball and a number of other activities.

The total number of youngsters in the league and recreation program will go well beyond 300 this summer with 140 alone in baseball.

How many parents will support their children's interest with their attendance at the baseball games? Or how many will use the program as a baby sitter so they may get away for their own activities?

Cameron's support of its summer recreation program last year was outstanding. Large numbers of parents were on hand to boost their offspring to greater feats of having fun and competing in the program.

As the program grows each year, the interest should grow with it. Oft times, such a program is so well organized that parents feel that Junior will be just as well off without their interest.

Of course this is not true. The program is only as successful as we make it. And our kids are more active and more interested in the world around them when we boost and direct them.

Whether we watch from behind home plate or high up in the bleachers, we are helping Junior and his summer recreation program with our personal support.

Sage Shares Ike's Problems In Solving Financial Cares

ear editar:

I have decided that running the vernment in Washington is not uch different from running a rm or a family out here on this hnson grass farm, financially eaking.

Last year, if you'll recall, Presint Eisenhower sat down to fige up what it was going to take run the country for a year, and said that while spending would up some, this could be handled right because incomes would up, consequently taxes would ing in more, and the budget uld balance with maybe a half-lion dollars left over.

Now though, with incomes not ite as high as hence tax revenue s, it looks like the government ll go in the red around three lion dollars.

That's exactly the way it turns t for me. I can sit down and ure to what my expenses will , what my income will be, and ow a paper profit, but invariably the year wears on things keep ppening.

Expenses are a little more than figured on, income is a little s, and by the end of the year e and the national government e in about the same shape. It's funny thing, but I can always e fewer expenses and more inme than ever results. Just like esident Eisenhower couldn't ve been expected to see a mild cession coming, I couldn't see at tractor tire I was going to in. It was a good tire, lots of bber still left on it, and I figured was good for two or three more ars at the least. I got two dolls on it on a trade-in.

The same thing was true about at piston rod, that cow that got k and died, the roof that blew f, the fence that fell over, my fe's breaking her eye glasses, ose relatives that piled in on us. ...I tell you, you never know what's going to turn up next on this farm or in the White House.

Of the two jobs, though, I believe I prefer this one. It's one thing to have your wife nagging at you when you take off on a little vacation, but another thing to have the entire United States population to answer to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Monetary Problems Facing Price Daniel

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—A fresh task force is being organized by Gov. Price Daniel to attack the state's monetary problems.

With oil production still hovering at a historic low and a prime source of state revenue partially throttled, Texas government is, for the time being, at least, 'living beyond its means."

Governor Daniel named a six-man committee of executive department officials to study ways of bridging the gap between income and outgo. Members are Sec'y of State Zollie Steakley, Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, Auditor C. H. Cavness, Budget Officer Jess Irwin and Col. J. T. Ellis Jr. of the governor's administrative staff.

They are expected to work cooperatively with the State Tax Study Commission, a group of legislators and outside experts who have been surveying the state's fiscal position for some months.

Under the present spending pattern, it is estimated the next legislature would have to scratch up upwards of $100,000,000 in new revenue to balance the books.

As in a family that comes up short at the end of the month, the state's advisors, both official and unofficial, are divided between those advocating getting more money and those favoring less spending.

Governor Daniel urged his executives to try both angles. Specifically, he suggested exploring:

1. Every possible economy in use of state funds.
2. Possible elimination or combination of duplicating services among state agencies.
3. Compilation of a list of non-recurring expenses in the present appropriation.
4. Every possible source of additional state revenues which may be available without the levy of additional taxes.

Open Season

Most major candidates have held their opening rallies and will be campaigning with little let-up between now and the July 26 primary.

But in many cases of the state an even more intensive struggle is going on at the grass roots for control of the precinct conventions. They'll be held right after the primary, on the evening of July 26.

It's a small-time battle with big-time stakes. Whichever group of the Democratic party gets out the "mostest" to the precinct conventions will control the state convention in the fall. This means taking over the official machinery of the party for the next two years .....leading up to 1960 and presidential nominating time.

Governor Daniel has said he will personally lead "conservatives, Moderates and all other Texas Democrats who believe in majority decisions." He's been assured of vigorous opposition from the liberal Democrats of Texas led by Mrs. Frankie Randolph of Houston, Texas national committeewoman.

DOT will have a statewide rally in Austin May 31 to draw attention to its efforts to oust the governor from official party leadership.

For the average citizens the precinct convention poses a more ticklish problem than primary voting. It may mean voting, publicly, against a neighbor who's running for precinct chairman.

'Wars' Watched

Atty. Gen Will Wilson says his office is keeping close check on the gasoline and milk price wars that have broken out in major cities.

In some areas gasoline prices dropped as much as 10 cents per gallon below normal, and milk has been sold at a fraction of the usual charge.

"Texas anti-trust laws do not prevent price wars which are the free working of competition," Wilson commented, "but they do prohibit agreement or conspiracy to fix or cut prices and selling below cost to eliminate competition."

More Building

Effect of the drought's end is being seen in more building in smaller towns dependent on agriculture for prosperity.

UT's Bureau of Business Research reports a 10 per cent rise in the January-April building volume for towns with less than 10,000 population.

BBR's report reflected a fairly general brightening of the building picture. Construction authorizations for April were up 3 per cent from March and 22 per cent from a year ago.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS

I wish to take this opportunity to extend my congratulations and best wishes to all Cameron High School Graduates. You have worked hard, and spent many long hours studying to complete your high school education. Whether you plan to look for a job or continue your education, I want to wish you happiness on your graduation, and may your future be filled with every good thing you desire.

May we extend an invitation to all of you to visit the telephone office, and see what goes on behind the scenes of your telephone service. You are always welcome. We'll be looking forward to seeing you.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING ON VACATION?

It's high time to be thinking about or planning a vacation. And when a family plans the vacation together, the planning can be almost as much fun as the "going".

To help plan their vacations better, more and more families nowadays put some dependence on the telephone.

A telephone call to an overnight stopping point guarantees accomodations for the family, permitting an extra hour or so of driving.

In the midst of the vacation, these same folks often answer the question of "wonder how everything is at home?" with a telephone call - the personal way to keep in touch.

So, this year, why don't you count on the telephone when planning and enjoying your vacation?

Remember, too, that station-to-station calls cost one-third less than person-to-person calls. And when you call by number, your calls go through twice as fast.

Color Is Here To Stay

I'm betting that I don't run into much of an argument when I say that people like color. And just look at the bright array of color telephones we have to offer you:

You can choose from Cherry Red, Pastel Yellow, Ivory, Rose Pink, White, Moss Green, Light Beige, Aqua Blue, and Light Gray . . . colors to fit any color scheme!

A color extension telephone is practical as well as good looking, too. Here in Cameron, an extension costs just $1.00 a month plus a one-time installation charge of $3.50. If you order yours in color, there's an extra one - time cost charge of $10.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Burkes - Horward Co. Offers Outstanding Product Lines

The Burkes-Howard Co., Cameron and Bartlett, offers an outstanding line of farm and home name-brand appliances and machines, including International-Harvester trucks and Farmall row-crop tractors.

Max Howard, general manager and half-owner in the business, points out many other familiar names in appliances, farm equipment and allied materials as well as one of the largest stock of service parts in Central Texas.

"We really service what we sell," Howard says. "Our well-stocked parts department has just about everything to keep equipment sold at Burkes-Howard going. And we have the servicemen to do the work right."

Many Products

Burkes-Howard Co. lines include General Electric appliances, Mohawk tires, Choremaster and Eska lawnmowers, Continental post-hole diggers and sprayers, stalk shredders by Service Equipment Co., Windpower rotary hoes and farm trailers, Ranger home trailers, Whirlpool freezers, lawn furniture, evaporative coolers and baling wire.

"We have a competent staff to stand behind of our line of merchandise," Howard continues. "O. G. Chamberlain has been our parts supervisor for four years. And Leo Plachy, William (Bill) Gibbs and Frank Plasek do an expert repair job on any kind of equipment customers bring in."

Plachy has 16 years experience with Burkes-Howard and is an appliance specialist. Gibbs is a top-notch welder while Plasek is an expert motor mechanic.

"We would like to point out that we sell a number of different types of Continental post hole diggers, including sprayers, stalk shredders and terracing machines blades and doziers by Service Equipment Co., one of the major suppliers we represent," Howard says.

New Coolers

"And this year we are adding evaporative coolers from $29 up that are nifty, inexpensive room coolers," he points out.

Burkes-Howard now has two stores, allowing them to buy in larger quantities for discount prices to farm consumers. Howard and his partner, E. J. Burkes, opened a farm equipment and appliance store in Bartlett in May, 1957. The two outlets makes possible quantity purchases which passes savings on to the customers, Howard says.

"We try to service anything we sell," Howard emphasizes. "Our mechanics are factory-trained in their specialties to assure Burkes-Howard customers of the best service available."

The Burkes-Howard shop in Cameron has special steam washroom and paint room for farm equipment, giving an extra touch for a just-new appearance to used equipment serviced there. And all second-hand equipment sold at Burkes-Howard carries a new warranty, Howard says.

The business also carries insecticides, both liquid and dust, for the cotton season.

Started In 1941

Burkes and Howard started in business together in January, 1941, in Cameron, later moving to their present location upon completion of the present building in 1948. They are on US 77 and North Fannin.

Cammer followed in the footsteps of brothers Ben, Jeff and John and has built the business to its present, modern facilities.

He proudly points out that Ben Cammer introduced the first pressing machine in Cameron. And he says that Cammer's Cleaners have been keeping up with modern developments in the industry ever since.

Cammer points out the modern plant that is centrally located in the heart of downtown Cameron is convenient to people coming to Cameron to shop. But if they need quick pick-up and delivery service, he says, we provide it free.

"Altering too is one of our services," Cammer says.

The new cleaning building was built in 1946. It contains the equipment and spacious service area that customers like, Cammer says.

Off-Farm Employment

More and more farm people are supplementing their incomes with off-farm employment, notes A. B. Wooten, extension economist. In recent years the ratio from non-farm sources, compared to farm sources, has been about one to two. This means that farm residents are making a $1 from non-farm jobs for each $2 they make on the farm.

Insects Only Problem To Cotton Farmers, Bright Year Predicted

By J. D. Moore, County Agent

Early season insect control program is recommended to combat insect threat. Prospects for a good cotton crop in Central Texas this year are now the best in 10 years, according to various experts; and how good a crop you make depends on how well you control your insects, says Charlie Porencia, Entomologist in charge of the Waco cotton insect laboratory.

"We have everything in our favor this year to make a good cotton crop. We have ample moisture and farmers this year seem to be more interested than ever before in making every possible pound per acre," Porencia added.

The insect situation, Porencia said is this: 1. Survival of boll weevils and cotton flea hoppers is high in Central Texas because of the mild winter. 2. Growth of weeds and grass has been favorable for a build-up if heavy thrip population.

"We've got plenty of bugs to contend with this year, and right now that is the biggest threat to our cotton prospects," he said.

Porencia recommends the following schedule of early season insecticide application for all April and May planted cotton in this area:

First application - thrips dosage-week of May 19-24; Second application - thrips dosage - week of May 26-31; Third application - boll weevil dosage - week of June 2-7; Fourth application - boll weevil dosage - week of June 9-14.

After the June 9-14 period, cotton should be poisoned only if it is being damaged by insects. Treatment should not be made from this date to July 10 unless it is absolutely necessary in order for beneficial insects to buildup.

At the Michalka field demonstration this week, we found aphids, overwintered boll weevils, thrip damage, cotton flea hoppers and certain type army worms.

If aphids or plant lice build up in cotton, farmers may add 1 pint of parathion per acre to their regular cotton insecticide to control the plant lice.

4-H District 8 Camp Hosts 4 County Girls

Milam county 4-H members are making preparations to attend the annual 4-H Club Round-Up at A&M College on the 10th, 11th and 12th of June.

The Round-Up is the highlight of 4-H Club activities, according to Bennie Whiteside, ass't county agent. State winners will be determined in the judging contests, in the Demonstration contests and Share The Fun contests.

Whiteside added that many other interesting and enjoyable activities will be on schedule for the Round-Up. Milam county has five teams and thirteen 4-H members going to the Round-Up.

Top Soil Ideal For Cultivation, County Agent Says

County Agent J. D. Moore this week reported that top soil was ideal for planting last week and farmers were busy completing cultivation.

His weekly crop report noted that crops made good growth during the second consecutive week of dry weather in Milam County.

He said that oats are ready for making hay while sunshine is speeding up ripening of oats for harvest.

Corn and maize made good growth with spotted reports of continued grubworm damage to some stands of corn, he said.

Moore said that cotton is in good condition for cultivation and poisoning. He noted some worm damage and thrip damage on unpoisoned cotton.

Livestock conditions continue good with strong gains noted on maturing pastures.

Truck crops also are shaping up fairly well, Moore concluded.
